Halloween Headquarters

Spook-tacular Costume Ideas

Halloween is a great time to use your creativity and artistic talent! This year at Goodwill, we want to assist you in creating costumes. Use the pumpkin guide to choose a costume that is right for you. Happy picking!

☺: Easy ☺☺: Fair ☺☺☺: Time Consuming ☺☺☺☺: Difficult

Sweat suit costumes

Muscle Man: Paint or quilt muscles onto a flesh-colored sweatshirt and pants set. Stuff arms and legs with soft cloth to make biceps & quad muscles look big. Wear a pair of sports shorts over the sweatpants and a sweat band on arms or forehead. Create dumbbells by attaching two black balloons to the end of a cardboard paper towel roll or gift wrap roll, and paint it black. ☺☺☺

Spider: Wear an all black sweat suit and stuff the legs of 4 black panty hose. Attach the panty hose legs to your sweatshirt, and your arms to the panty hose with string. Watch the fake legs lift when you raise your arms! Become a black widow spider by adding a red spot on the back of your sweatshirt made with card board or construction paper. ☺☺

Cat: Wear a black sweat suit with a tail attached made from stuffed panty hose or other fabric. Attach ears to a headband for girls or to the top of a hooded sweatshirt for boys. Mark face with whiskers. ☺

Cow: Add black spots to a white sweat suit. Create ears on a head band or hood. Tie a fake (or real with adult supervision) cow bell onto the end of a long costume jewelry necklace. ☺☺

Pig: All pink sweat suit with corkscrew tail made from pipe cleaners or other fabric. Attach ears to a head band or hood. ☺

Dragon: Add dragon scales, (made from felt or shoulder pads) to the back of a green or purple sweat suit with a hooded sweatshirt. Sew or glue onto sweat suit starting from the hood and continuing down the back. Make a paper mache mask to complete the costume. ☺☺☺☺

Skeleton: Add “bones” to an old black sweat suit by fabric painting them on or using white felt. Mix things up by just doing this to the top and altering a cardboard box to look like an x-ray machine. ☺☺☺☺

Bug: Add extra arms (like the spider) and wings to create the bug of choice. Use a hooded sweatshirt and attach an antenna to a headband onto of the hood. ☺☺

Butterfly: Same as above, just add colorful cardboard wings. ☺☺☺

Flower or Vegetable: Use a green sweat suit for the stem and make a flower hat/crown. You can create this from poster board, construction paper and stickers, or take an orange sweat suit & hunters' hat. Attach pipe cleaners and green yarn to the top to become a carrot! ☺☺☺☺

Affordable costumes

Ghost: Just cut holes in an old white sheet, draw on some chains and spider webs with magic markers. ☺

Angel: Use a sheet, spray it lightly with some clear spray paint and toss glitter on it before the paint dries. Make a halo and wings from a wire clothes hanger covered in aluminum foil. ☺☺☺

Nerd: Wear small pants, a shirt buttoned up wrong, hair slicked back, an old pair of glasses with tape, white socks and a big book to carry around. ☺☺

Bum or Hobo: Old clothes... (dad's garden or old work clothes work great.) Use watercolor paint to put a beard on. Take black trash bag with a pillow in it & carry it around. ☺☺

Clown: Use mismatched, oversized, or too small clothing from everyone's closet. If you don't have a wig, make a hat from construction paper, or wear an old colorful one. Decorate it with flowers and pins. ☺☺☺

Hunter: Wear a bright orange jacket or shirt and match it with an orange hat. If you don't have anything orange, wear all camouflage. ☺

Rock Star: Wear torn clothing, and spike your hair. Borrow some clip on earrings and the dog's collar. ☺

Frankenstein: Paint your face green and tear up your shirt. Add a pair of beat up large boots. ☺☺

Dark clothing costumes

Abraham Lincoln: Make a beard using fake fur and a top hat out of a coffee can and an ice cream bucket lid. (Glue together and paint black.) Carry a copy of the Gettysburg address. ☺☺☺

1950's Greaser: Wear black or blue jeans, white t-shirt, white socks and sunglasses. Slick your hair back, and wear a high school letter jacket. ☺

Men in Black: wear black pants and a dark suit jacket, and a tie. Top the outfit off with a pair of black sunglasses. ☺

Magician: Wear a black pants and shirt, or an old graduation gown. Top it off with a black cape, fake beard and a construction paper hat. ☺☺☺

Ninja: wear black pants and a shirt. Make a sword and ninja stars out of cardboard. ☺☺☺

Punk Rocker: Wear some black jeans with a leather jacket. Buy some colored hair spray. ☺☺

Quasimoto: Wear black pants with a large shirt, stuffed with a pillow for a hump. ☺
